2. This was 3 forwarded to the Plague Commissioner in Calcutta for opinion, who in his letter No 3584 dated 25th February 1901, stated that as the Hospital Assistants referred to were not on actual plague duty during the time they were in charge of the temporary Dispensary at Arvatti they were entitled only to a semi medical or Charge allowance at the rate of Rs 15 a month (as recommended by the Civil Surgeon of Shimoga). Thereupon the Senior Surgeon was asked to state (1) who was in charge of the Dispensary subsequent to 8th September 1898 and (2) what allowance, if any, was paid to him and from what funds and (3) if no allowance was paid to him, what necessity there was for payment of any allowance to these Hospital Assistants, (4) from what date the Hospital Assistant at Sirakoppa commenced to make his weekly visits to Anvatti and what allowance if any was paid to him for such visits and from what funds.

3. The President D.F. Board Shimoga was also requested to state between what dates the Dispensary at Nagar was transferred to Anvatti and whether the D. F. Board Shimoga were willing to pay in addition to the charge allowance if any paid to the Hospital Assistant at Nagar and Sirakoppa the allowance claimed by the two Hospital Assistants referred to.

4. In reply the President of the Shimoga D.F Board stated that the Dispensary at Nagar was temporarily closed from 7th November 99 to 12th April 1900 and that the D.F Board are willing to pay the allowance claimed by the Hospital Assistants alluded to.

5. The Senior Surgeon replied to say that the marginally noted Hospital Assistants were in charge of the temporary Dispensary at Anvatti during the periods specified against their names subsequent to 8th September 1898 that none of them drew any kind of allowance for being in charge of the dispensary except Subbaroya who had drawn the sanctioned allowance of Rs 20/- for the Nagar Dispensary which had to be closed as a temporary measure, and Hospital Assistant Edward Drever who had drawn his mileage for visiting Arvalli once or twice in addition to his dispensary charge allowance at Siralkoppa.

6. On this the Senior Surgeon was again asked to state what necessity there was for the payment of any allowance to Hospital Assistants A. Krishnaswamy Mudaliar and B.R. Srinivasiengar for having been in charge of the temporary dispensary at Arvalli while three others who were subsequently in charge of the same dispensary, M431 § 13-11-0182 50.

were granted no similar allowance and whether no mileage or batta was drawn by them for their visits to and from Arvalli

Letter under reference 7. In reply the Senior Surgeon says that the receipts for the payment of allowance to Hospital Assistants A. Krishnaswamy Mudaliar and B.R. Srinivasacharlar is owing to their having been stationed at Arnavalle (Malnad) for some time permanently to do plague work that they did not draw any mileage or batta as they were not visiting the place, but drew travelling allowance for their journey to and from Arvalli and that Senior Hospital Assistant Peter is also entitled to the charge allowance, as he was in charge of the dispensary from 8th September to 26th October 1898.

Submitted for orders as to

(1) whether the allowance bills + submitted by S. Surgeon on 7/2/01 amounting to Rs 120-9-10 due to Hospital Assistants Krishnaswamy Moodr and Srinivasangar may be sanctioned.

(2) whether the claim for such allowance to the Senior Hospital Assistant Peter, who was in charge of the dispensary between 8th September to 26th October 1898 can be recognized as the Senr Surgeon now recommends. For this charge no bill is pending adjustment.

(3) whether in consideration of the Hospital Assistants having been deputed for Plague work, as stated by the Senior Surgeon, any portion thereof the allowance may not be debited to Plague funds or whether the whole amount should be debited to D. F. as agreed to by the Board.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for the information of Government, the marginally noted correspondence together with 2 allowance bills of Hospital Assistants A.Krishnasawmy Mudaliar and B.R. Sreenivasa Iyengar for being in charge of the Temporary Dispensary at Anavatti during the year 1898 and to state that a Temporary Dispensary was in consultation with the Deputy Commissioner opened in 1898 at Anavatty solely to examine people arriving from Dharwar and other infected places with a view to prevent Plague from entering the Province and to render Medical aid at the same time to those who were suffering from fever and other diseases at Anavatty.

As the Hospital Assistants were in charge of the Dispensary observing people from the infected parts, I have the honor to recommend that the Government will be pleased to sanction the allowance claimed by them at an early date and debit the amount to plague funds as per Government Proceedings No. 2840-43/Mis F. 21-96 dated 30th August 1898.
